CARRY FULL LINES OF ALL THE PUBLISHERS'

Miscellaneous, Standard, and School Stock, and offer the Book Trade of the United States and Canada the advantages of a perfectly equipped and organized Jobbing House in the Greatest American Book Market. The most favorable market in which to purchase is that where the transactions are most frequent and on the largest scale, and where the producers of, and dealers in, any given article are most numerous. Of the one hundred and seventy-five book-publishers in the United States one hundred and twenty-five are either located in New York or have agencies with representative lines there. None is entirely unrepresented. No general order for books can possibly be completely filled without waiting at some point for a portion of it to be ordered and shipped from New York. The best thing to do with such an order is to send it straight to New York in the first instance. It is probable that it can be filled there at once; if it cannot be, then the "shorts" can be got together for shipment more quickly in New York than at any other point in the country: its location is central.

PHILADELPHIA. LONDON.

American Cable Address: "Drebid," Philadelphia

NEW BOOKS BY ANTHONY J. DREXEL BIDDLE, F.G.S.A.

The Flowers of Life.

A Gift-Book for Presentation Occasions. Handsomely bound in blue and gold, in white and gold, and in yellow and gold, and printed on extra heavy paper. 12mo, cloth, pp. 88. Price, 90 cents.

"This handsome volume consists of some of Mr. A J. Drexel Biddle's latest writings, so chosen as to make a gift-book appropriate for presentation occasions Mr Drexel Biddle's publications are mounting up. A complete uniform edition will soon be called for."—The Philadelphia Telegraph.

"A book of intermingled verse, reflections, remarks, essays, and allegories."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"The author gives some lessons that will be read with profit and pleasure by litterateurs everywhere."—The Philadelphia Star.

"Marked by the exquisite finish and general artistic perfection which characterizes the books published by this house."—The Augusta (Georgia) Herald.

The Froggy Fairy Book.

Now in its 3d Thousand. With nine beautiful full-page illustrations by J. R. Skeen. 8vo, cloth. Price, 50 cents; de luxe edition, $1.25.

". . . Remarkably clever."—London Times.

"One of the successes of the season."—Philadelphia Times.

"A funny book for children, which has obtained a great vogue."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The story, which is cleverly conceived, tells of the adventures of Elsie Lee, a typical little American girl of tender years, among the frogs. . . . The book is printed in large type, on fine paper, superbly bound in canvas, and stamped in gold."—New York World.

"There is a frog orchestra, a frog prince, fairies of all kinds, and plenty of fun. It is a real old-fashioned tale, told with the sympathy of one who loves children and knows how to write for them."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Shantytown Sketches.

A Collection of Humorous Tales in Irish, Negro, and German Dialects. 12mo, red cloth and silver. Price, 60 cents.

"The sketches are humorous, and eminently readable."—Philadelphia Press.

". . . There are short sketches in the book, some of which are as full of originality and of humor as the early sketches of Bret Harte. One of the most amusing of them—decidedly the most amusing—is 'Mrs. Mulhooney's Receiving Day.' The richness of the sketch must be read to be appreciated. The author shows the bent of a genius and it is to be hoped he will persevere in the line he has started, which indicates the born novelist. The 'Advice to a Newspaper Reporter from Von Grand Vriend of Der Profession' is another amusing skit very well worth reading."—Philadelphia Herald.

". . . Contributed to magazines and newspapers, and to . . . humorous journals."—London Literary World.

The Madeira Islands.

Containing some thirty full-page illustrations and numerous maps, together with chapters on the History, the Vine, the Wine, and the Flora. 12mo, cloth. Price, $2.00.

"It has been left for an American to give us the first illustrated book on 'The Madeira Islands.' The author is Mr Anthony J Drexel Biddle, who has already made considerable contributions to contemporary literature."—The Sheffield (England) Telegraph.

". . . As for the text, suffice it to say that the author tells all that is worth knowing about the islands. He has evidently studied them and their history thoroughly, going back to the time when they were discovered and settled, and telling us how they have fared from that time until now. Of life in the islands at present he draws a graphic and interesting picture, and altogether his book can be recommended, not only to historical students and to those who may intend to visit the Madeiras, but also to those who, though unable for various reasons to spend much time in travelling, are yet always eager to obtain new information about foreign and little-known countries."—The New York Herald.

The Second Froggy Fairy Book.

Superbly illustrated with pen and color full-page and inter text drawings by well-known artists, printed on heavy satin-finished paper, and bound in blue silk cloth stamped in gold, silver, and red. A gift-book appropriate for all presentation occasions. Price, 75 cents.

"The Christmas books of Mr. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, the American writer and publisher, are becoming increasingly popular."—London Literary World.

"It is unnecessary to explain the 'plot' of this most entertaining fairy tale. Suffice it to say that it contains all the elements of wonder required to gain for it the approbation of the children, while the excellent pictures are in themselves an exhaustless source of interest."—The Dundee (Scotland) Advertiser.

"One of the very best new fairy stories of the year."—The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer.

A Dual Role and Other Stories.

Paper, pp. 164. Price, 25 cents.

"The book is well written and shows an earnest desire on the part of its author to merit the good-will of the public. There are some ideas after the order of 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde,' elaborated and worked out interestingly."—The Washington News.

". . . The tales are well conceived and wrought out with noteworthy cunning."—The Philadelphia Press.

"It gives the views of a Philadelphia society man upon Philadelphia society, handling it none too gently, either, and chronicling certain doings of the inside circle that are apt to open wide the eyes of the unsophisticated outsider."—The North American.

American Academy of Political and Social Science.

Ten volumes are now ready of the Annals of the American Academy, and can be supplied unbound for $37.50; bound in cloth for $42.50; or bound in half leather for $47.50. These ten volumes contain a total of 7632 pages.

The Annals is published bi-monthly. The annual subscription price is $6.00; with a special rate to libraries of $5.00. It is sent free to all members of the Academy.

Besides the larger papers contributed to the Annals by many eminent scholars both at home and abroad, especial attention has been directed to the departments. All important books are carefully reviewed or noticed by specialists. The department of Personal Notes keeps the reader informed of movements in the academic and scientific world. Notes upon Municipal Government and Sociology preserve a careful record of events and other matters of interest in these departments, which at the present time claim so large a share of public attention.

"The Annals of the American Academy is issued bi-monthly, and its contents are solid and substantial. This is the most scholarly of all the publications of this sort which are published in the United States."—Boston Herald.

Every library should have a complete set of the Annals.

Important New Publications.

SIMON DALE

By ANTHONY HOPE,

Author of "Phroso," "The Heart of Princess Osra," "The Prisoner of Zenda," etc.

A new novel by the greatest of all living romantic writers. The story is laid in the time of Charles II. and has chiefly to do with the English and French courts. These furnish material for a tale of love, intrigue, and adventure that could not be surpassed, and the author has availed himself of his opportunities in a remarkable manner. The work lies in a slightly different field from that which he has previously cultivated, although the same brilliant and original touch which is so strongly shown throughout "Phroso" and "The Prisoner of Zenda" is noticeable in this new novel.

Nell Gwynn, Charles II of England, and Louis XIV. of France figure prominently in this story.

12mo, cloth, with 8 full-page illustrations by W. St. John Harper, $1.50.

BLADYS OF THE STEWPONEY

By S. BARING-GOULD,

Author of "The Broom Squire," "Mehalah," "Court Royal," etc.

The author has always been a close student of early English life, and his books are instructive as well as readable. "B'adys" is an historical romance laid at the close of the last century. The scene is laid partly near the famous Stewponey Inn, near Stourton Castle, at the time when the country on the road to Chester was infested with highwaymen, and partly at Shrewsbury.

The story contains the last instance of the burning of a woman for "petty treason," i.e., the murder of her husband, which took place at Shrewsbury in 1790. The very interesting Red Sandstone country, with its inhabited caves, the refuge of the highwaymen and their confederates, is described.

12mo, cloth, $1.25.

THE WHIRLPOOL

By GEORGE GISSING,

Author of "In the Year of the Jubilee," "Eve's Ransom," etc.

Mr. Gissing's late work has attracted a great deal of attention in England by its strength and truth. Harold Frederic, in a recent issue of the New York Times, dwelt upon this fact at length, and predicted still greater success for him in the future. "The Whirlpool" is a story of modern English life, and is of absorbing interest.

"Admirably written and admirably conceived, this is a novel to delight all who seek with anxiety among modern fiction for what is truly valuable."
—London Literary World.

"The novel is full of incident, and also contains much quaintly expressed philosophy, while the analysis of character is uniformly excellent. No one who picks up 'The Whirlpool' will regret the choice, and when the last page is reached the reader will feel sorry to part with certain of the characters whose faults and misfortunes make them all the more lovable to us. They are all alive."—Publishers' Circular.

12mo, cloth, with a cover by Will Bradley, $1.25.

THE TALES OF JOHN OLIVER HOBBES

Containing "Some Emotions and a Moral," "The Sinners' Comedy," "A Study in Temptation," "A Bundle of Life." These have been obtainable heretofore in small separate editions only, which have been of a peculiar size and not convenient for the reader.

The tremendous success of Mrs. Craigie's latest novel in England, where she is regarded as the greatest woman novelist since the time of George Eliot, has aroused renewed interest in her early works, and resulted in this new edition of them, which is to be uniform with "The School for Saints."

12mo, cloth, $1.50.

ANDRÉE'S BALLOON EXPEDITION

In Search of the North Pole

By M. LACHAMBRE and M. MACHURON

The authors are the experts in ærostatics who accompanied Andrée to Spitzbergen, and saw him sail through the air into the unknown.

Complete particulars regarding the construction and equipment of the balloon are given, together with all the details of the preparation for the start, and the circumstances surrounding the latter itself.

The description of the departure of the three heroes is thrilling and dramatic. Should Andree never return, this volume will prove a permanent record of all that can be known regarding his daring attempt, unless other explorers should find records or relics of his expedition.

The work is to be illustrated by more than fifty engravings after photographs taken by the authors during the time of preparation, and at the time of start.

12mo, cloth, $2.00.

ZISKA

The Problem of a Wicked Soul

By MARIE CORELLI,

Author of "Barabbas," "The Sorrows of Satan," "A Romance of Two Worlds," etc.

A new edition of this popular work, which has been out of print for several months.

"'Ziska' is a first-rate story of the occult. . . . It has an artistic power to justify the enormous first edition (50,000 copies) which the London publishers have issued."—Chicago Tribune.

12mo, cloth, $1.25.

THE SON OF THE CZAR

By JAMES GRAHAM.

An unusually interesting historical novel, dealing with Peter the Great, Catherine his wife, and the weak and unfortunate Czarowitz Alexis, the heir to the throne, who met a miserable fate. A most thrilling and instructive romance

12mo, cloth, $1.25.

Letters of

DANTE GABRIEL ROSSETTI

To William Allingham, 1854-1870

By GEORGE BIRKBECK HILL, D.C.L., LL.D., Honorary Fellow of Pembroke College, Oxford, and Editor of "Boswell's Life of Johnson," etc.

This book is an important contribution to the history of the Pre-Raphaelite group. It is full of curious and interesting matter, not only in the actual letters of Rossetti, but in the copious annotations contributed by the editor. To his unrivalled editorial diligence, Dr. Birkbeck Hill adds personal and sympathetic reminiscences, and the result is a masterpiece of discursive annotation.

"Of great interest and value, and assured of permanent existence."—London Globe.

"The most interesting of the various memorials of Rossetti."—London Times.

8vo, cloth, stamped with gold, $4.50.

THE BARNSTORMERS

Being the Tragical Side of a Comedy

By Mrs. HARCOURT WILLIAMS,

Author of "A Provincial Lady."

This tells the story of an English girl who came to this country, and being obliged to earn her living, went on the stage. She joined a travelling theatrical company, and had numerous and striking adventures.

It is a realistic tale of the life of the strolling actor, and is full of humorous and dramatic situations.

THE WORKS OF EDGAR ALLAN POE. Newly collected, edited, and for the first time revised after the author's final manuscript corrections. By EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN and GEORGE EDWARD WOODBERRY With many portraits and facsimiles, and pictures by Albert Edward Sterner The ten volumes, cloth, together in box, $15 00, net; or separately, $1.50, net. Half crushed levant, ten volumes, $40.00, net, or the five volumes of tales, $20 00 a set.

This is the only complete edition of Poe's works. The entire writings have been revised, innumerable errors have been corrected; quotations have been verified, and the work now stands—for the first time—as Poe wished it to stand. The editors contribute a memoir, critical introduction and notes, the variorum texts are given and new matter has been added. The portraits include several which have never appeared in book form before, and the printing has been carefully done at the University Press, in Cambridge, on specially made, deckled-edge paper. In fine—the edition aims to be definitive, and is intended alike for the librarian, the student, and the book-lover.

THE CHAP-BOOK. A Semi-Monthly Miscellany and Review of Belles-Lettres. Price, 10 cents a copy; $2.00 a year.

"The 'Chap-Book' is indispensable In its new form, as a literary review, it fills an important place in our magazine literature."—Rochester Post-Express.

THE HOUSE BEAUTIFUL. A monthly magazine devoted to Houses and Homes. Articles on rugs, furniture, pottery, silverware and bookbindings; prints, engravings and etchings; interior and exterior decoration, etc. Abundantly illustrated. It is a magazine of general interest and appreciative rather than technical in character. Ten cents a copy; $1.00 a year Sample copies sent for five 2-cent stamps

"'The House Beautiful,' for its sincerity of purpose and dignified fulfilment of its aim, so far, should be highly commended. The third number contains some exquisite illustrations. . . . Some good reviews and notes follow the articles, and a really useful magazine, in a fair way to become well established, is thus kept on its course."—Chicago Times-Herald.

NEW BOOKS ISSUED IN 1897.

The Covenanter, the Cavalier, and the Puritan. By Judge OLIVER PERRY TEMPLE. 12mo, cloth. $1 50.

"A brief history of the three leading parties who first peopled and then made this great country is a valuable contribution to our archives. We have much of such history written into larger works, or perhaps the story of one of these given in a single book, but we do not know of any in which the history of the three is condensed so well and in so brief a form. It makes a charming and a stirring story. The whole book is delightful."—Christian Observer.

The Squirrel Hunters of Ohio; or, Glimpses of Pioneer Life By N. E. JONES, M.D. 12mo, cloth. Illustrated. $1.50.

The book is replete with interesting matter relating to the Pioneer period and collateral subjects; containing more than 300 pages. Illustrated with numerous half-tones, maps, etc., and handsomely bound in art cloth. Every Ohio man should read the book and know more of the power and importance of his race.

1861-1865. Personal Recollections and Experiences in the Confederate Army. By an "OLD JOHNNIE" (Capt Charles Dinkins.) 12mo, cloth. $1 50.

These recollections and experiences, written at odd times, are now offered in book form in the hope that they may be found interesting to the survivors of the lost cause and the descendants of those who died in the service.

Conversations on Animal Life. For Young People. By ANDREW JACKSON HOWE, A.M., M.D. 12mo, cloth. Illustrated. $1.50.

The book is designed to interest readers in a subject that is fast becoming a part of the education of the young, and Dr Howe has justified his aim in this posthumous volume, which is sure to be one of the year's most successful contributions to nature study.

Modern Poet Prophets. Essays Critical and Interpretative. By WILLIAM NORMAN GUTHRIE. 12mo, cloth. $2.00.

Contents: Introductory Essay Ideal Womanhood in Dante, Goethe, and Robert Browning; I., Leopardi and Evolutional Pessimism; II., "Obermann" of Senancour and Matthew Arnold; III, Agnostic Poets of Our Day, Clough, Rossetti, Swinburne, Arnold; IV., The Prometheus Unbound of Shelley; V., The Permanence of Art, or Art and Ontology; VI, Realistic Art on the Stage, Gerhardt Hauptman; VII., The Message of Walt Whitman.

Browning's Paracelsus, and Other Essays. By J D. BUCK, M.D. 16mo, cloth. $1.00.

This little volume of essays can hardly be called light reading, and yet they may serve as a recreation to those who are trying to solve the deeper problems of life, and who are not averse to suggestions as to where and how a solution may be found.

A Handbook for the Bookseller, Librarian, and Collector of Books.

American Book Clubs their beginnings and history, and a bibliography of their publications, by A. GROWOLL, Managing Editor of The Publishers' Weekly. 14+423 p. 12mo. Half calf, cloth sides, printed on Brown's handmade paper, limited to 300 copies, $7.50; Special edition, on Japan paper, limited to 30 copies, $15.

In his introduction the author traces the publishing activity of the early American literary societies from the Junto down to the Delphians (1726–1825). Gives descriptions of thirty-eight clubs, beginning with the first known—The Seventy-Six Society (1854), and ending with the latest one—The Dibdin Club (1897) Appended to the description of each club is a bibliography of the publications of the club with accurately transcribed titles. All the information given has been revised and verified by the surviving members of extinct clubs or by the officers and chief members of existing clubs. Specially valuable are the facts relating to the character of the publications, which facts cover much of the political and social as well as the literary history of America. The complete bibliographies make the work valuable for collectors and for libraries. Full index.

PUBLISHERS' NOTE

The present Volume of the ANNUAL CATALOGUE embraces the Works issued and recorded in the 60th or DIAMOND JUBILEE Year of the PUBLISHERS' CIRCULAR.

The number of Publications recorded, as will be seen by the accompanying Analytical Table, is larger by nearly 1,400 than in 1896. In Theology there is a rise of about 100, and in Education of 160. A notable rise is that of some 300 in Politics and Commerce. The demand for light reading grows, and new Fiction shows a considerable rise, but its large total is only increased by the same amount as the small total which previously stood to the credit of Politics and Commerce. In Voyages and Travels and in Poetry the figures are much the same as last year. Of Medical Books almost exactly the same number were published as appeared in 1895, but a hundred more than in 1896. In Belles-Lettres the figures are about 80 less than in 1895, and about 90 more than in 1896. Compared with last year, there is a falling off of about a score in Arts and Sciences, but in History and Biography there is an increase of a like number. Law shows a slight decline. Miscellaneous works maintain an even level.

The Analytical Table is divided into 13 Classes: also New Books and New Editions.

Divisions	1896		1897
	New Books	New Editions	New Books	New Editions
Theology, Sermons, Biblical, &c.	503	100	594	109

		5,234		6,244
		6,573		7,926

In addition to the 7,926 English Works, it may be mentioned that this Catalogue contains the Titles &c. of about 400 of the most important American Works which have been imported into this country, or the titles of which have otherwise come under our notice.

The full Title is given, with size, price, publisher, &c., with Subject Titles and cross-references as heretofore.

The issue of the

MONTHLY PART OF THE ENGLISH CATALOGUE,

giving the full Titles, under Authors and Subjects, and a more extended classification during the past year has given great satisfaction, and has been found of the greatest value to Booksellers both in this country and abroad.

It cannot be doubted that this giving full Titles in the Annual Catalogue is a most valuable feature as saving cross-references to the PUBLISHERS' CIRCULAR; but the result is a volume of about a hundred pages thicker than the previously issued volumes, and needless to say the cost of printing it is proportionately increased. The Selling Price, Five Shillings, will, however, not be increased.

In view of the approaching publication of Vol. V. embracing in one alphabet the whole of the ANNUAL CATALOGUE 1890–1897, the Editor will feel greatly obliged by having pointed out to him any errors of omission or commission which may be found in the 1897 Volume, or in any other Annual Volume from 1890 to 1896.
